ABOUT

A voice trusted with protocol, and comfortable with a crowd. A leading figure in the UAE's event landscape for over two decades, Pravada HM bridges the gap between high-level institutional protocol and high-energy audience engagement — a Cultural Storyteller for a country that speaks in many tongues. Over two decades on the UAE's biggest platforms, she has learned that command of a room is less about volume, and more about fluency.

Seamless live delivery in English, Hindi, Malayalam, and Tamil, enabling authentic connection with the UAE's diverse multicultural audiences.

Large-Scale Crowd Command

Proven ability to manage massive public audiences and complex multi-segment productions under high-pressure environments.

CULTURAL & MEDIA VERSATILITY

Alongside live stage and moderation work, Pravada maintains a strong media presence as a television presenter, actress, and cultural columnist, folding broadcast and digital storytelling into the same fluent voice.
